

PRESS RELEASE 新聞稿

Hospital Authority Building, 147B, Argyle Street, Kowloon, Hong Kong

Sunday, 21 December 2008

Note to Editors:

Regarding the handling by Caritas Medical Centre of a patient who collapsed at Wing Hong Street yesterday, the spokesperson of the Hospital Authority has the following response:

The Hospital Authority is deeply concerned about the incident and expresses the deepest condolence to the family of the deceased patient.

Caritas Medical Centre is required to conduct a thorough investigation and submit a report to the Hospital Authority, within one week, regarding the incident and related issues including the procedures and hospital guidelines in handling public in seeking assistance from hospitals, resuscitation equipment and training.

* * * * *